

1789 BERKS CO. INDENTURE FOUND FOR CHRISTIAN YODER (YR12) HOMESTEAD

YODERS IN ARGENTINA

CHARLES FRANCIS YODER, MISSIONARY

-adapted from the Brethren Encyclopedia

This Indenture made the 12th day of June 1789 between John Miller & his wife, John Miller, Sr. and Henry Yoder being children & heirs of Christian Yoder late of Berks County in the other part: Witnesseth that the said John Miller & his wife have sold unto the said Henry Yoder being their father's heirs & assigns, a certain parcel of land...

The Yoder Newsletter has come into possession of an original parchment indenture showing the sale of the property of Christian Yoder (YR12) in Berks County to his son Joseph in 1789. Although we've covered this gentleman and his family fairly well (YNL30) this new information is just too good not to feature. Much of the information contained in this document supports conclusions which were painstakingly arrived at by Hugh Gingerich and Rachel Kreider while preparing their monumental work "Amish and Amish Mennonite Genealogies (AAMG)". After reviewing a transcript of the indenture, YNL Co-founder Rachel Kreider writes:

"I've gone over the indenture and found it interesting to see how much information we had already surmised about that family. I remember how very difficult the Yoder puzzle was for me when in the 1950's I was trying to outline these immigrant families of 1742. Even in the 1960's, Dr. Gingerich with all his expertise found it almost too great a challenge to identify the Jacobs, the Christians, the Johns in those two generations until in a most unexpected way we found the Barbara Shirk will (YR18- featured in YNL2). In it she named her brothers and sisters, but not in the right order. Now at least we know who the children were of Christian of this indenture.

Charles Francis Yoder was a missionary, editor and teacher in the Brethren Church. He was the son of Eli L. Yoder (YR12a321) and Nancy Secrist, and was born Mar. 26, 1873 in Wayne Co., Oh. Eli L. Yoder (1842-1913) had been born into an Amish-Mennonite family, but served in the army during the Civil War. He joined the German Baptist Brethren in Ohio in 1866, was minister of the Chippewa congregation (1869), was a leader of the Brethren Sunday school movement, and for a while was part owner and editor of The Brethren Evangelist.

Charles Francis moved with his family to Ashland, Oh (1885), southwestern Missouri (1886), Falls City, Ne (1887) and Morrill, Ks (1889) where he first met L.S. Bauman, with whom he was to work in later life. Yoder graduated from an academy in Hiawatha, Ks (1889), and studied at Taylor University in Ft. Wayne, In (1992-93), and the U. of Chicago (BA, 1899, BD, 1902). Concurrently, he was pastor or elder of the Warsaw, Fairview, and Dutchtown, In, congregations (1894-c1902) and helped establish the Goshen, In, congregation after he held revival meetings there in 1900. Under his leadership the number of members in the Warsaw congregation increased from 30 to 430 and other congregations experienced considerable growth. Yoder was ordained an elder at general Conference in 1893. As one of the leaders in the first youth program of the Brethren Church, he served as secretary of the "King's Children Society".

Although he had graduated with honors at the U. of Chicago,

9-11 TRAGEDY BRUSHES YODER FAMILY

The national tragedy of Sept. 11, 2001 includes no Yoder surnames on the casualty list. It did, however, brush against the history of the Yoder family. In a remote field in Stony Creek Township, Somerset County, Pa., United Airline Flight 93 came to an heroic end.

This same township was settled by "Schweitzer Christian" Yoder and his family in the spring of 1776. Thanks to Milton Walker of Somerset for providing information about the geographic relationship of the crash site to significant Yoder historical sites. The plane came down in a field almost due north of the town of Shanksville. The Old Yoder cemetery in the midst of the Zubeck Coal Company property and the cemetery of Bishop Christian Yoder Jr. are to the southwest of Shanksville. The distance between the crash and Yoder homesteads seems less than 2 1/2 mile. A local historical group is seeking to put a memorial at the crash location. CHARLES FRANCIS YODER MY GRANDFATHER

By Elsa Ruth Romanenghi Yoder, Córdoba, Argentina.

It is not easy to write about one's own grandfather: Childhood memories keep propping up and objectivity is put aside. Besides, knowledge of another person is a growing experience. We ourselves grow and become aware of things we had taken for granted as children. I am now a grandmother myself and feel as if I were just beginning to find out things about Grandpa.

I can still remember some lessons I received from him at an early age. I was starting school and learning how to read and write. On my way to school I used to spell out words written on the city walls. My mother told me they were bad words so I was not to read them aloud or repeat them. But one day, knowing I was doing wrong, I took a piece of charcoal and sneaked out at siesta time to write two

FRED ROY YODER IN ECONOMIC JOURNAL

The December 2001 issue of the Journal of Economic Issues
(JEI) included a major article entitled "The Influence of Veblen's Theory of the Leisure Class on Rural Sociologist Fred Roy Yoder".
Dr. Fred Roy Yoder, most renown among the Yoder family as the author of the genealogy of the North Carolina Yoders, had a long and significant academic career. Among sources credited, author Gerald F. Vaughn thanks Fred Roy Yoder's daughter Elaine Yoder Zakarison. For a copy of the article, inquire at: Association For

NEW BOOK BY YODER AUTHOR

"Simone: A Saint for Outsiders," a 281 page biographical novel by James D. Yoder is now available. The book narrates the life and thought of the French mystic, Simone Weil (1909-1943). As a disenfranchised philosophy teacher, Simone becomes a factory worker and labors for the dispossessed. Hunted by the Nazis, Christ comes to her, possessing her soul, transforming her into the "Saint for Outsiders." The book may be ordered online at www.Xlibris.com, 1-

Letters to the Editor

After reading the information on the Yoder family I personally wanted to say THANK YOU! I came from the Loran and Vera Yoder Family out of Wauseon, Ohio. There you will find many artifacts of my grandparents. My grandfather was Deputy sheriff of Fulton county for many years. They both are now resting in Wauseon Memorial Cem. My name is John Stewart Yoder son of Mr and Mrs John Franklin Yoder Of Holland Ohio. There in Holland you will find Yoder Mach and WPOS Christian Radio station founded by Lowell Yoder also there you will find information and many of our families history. At closing I would just like to say that one of the proudest treasures I hold dearest to my heart is I 'm glad God made me a YODER!-- John Stewart Yoder, Daytona Beach, Florida

Dear Editor,

This is Dwight Yoder, Rancho Palos Verdes, CA, a Yoder Newsletter subscriber. In YNL#7 there a front page story about The Amish-Mennonite Cemetery, Stark County, Ohio. In the story there is mention of a book in St. Joseph County, IN Yoders by Charles M.
Yoder. He was my grandfather. As a result, I am a direct descendent of Captain Joseph Yoder and Barbara Yoder buried in this cemetery.

While in Ohio a couple weeks ago, I followed the directions from YNL#7, and easily found the cemetery. With the crops harvested, it is easy to see it up on a rise about 200 yards west of Paris Avenue. The cemetery is maintained routinely but the headstones are deteriorating. Joseph Yoder's headstone is now unreadable.

Barbara Yoder on the Left, Joseph Yoder on the Right, Dwight Yoder
in the middle (holding a hardbound Yoder Newsletter)

While there I inquired as to who maintained the cemetery and found the Miller family that lives on the southeast corner of SR 153 and Paris Avenue. Mr. Miller is a cabinet maker. The Millers told me that a friend had a complete listing of the persons buried in the cemetery. At my request, they have mailed me a copy of this list. It is actually a copied record of information on the headstones compiled in 1976.

Since you are, to me, the "keeper of the flame" of Yoder history; I would like to mail this on to you if you do not have it. As mentioned in the article, there are not a lot of Yoders in the cemetery.
This listing was prepared about ten years before the Hilles survey noted in YNL#7, it may have more information than could be read by the Hilles' in 1985.

The cemetery is officially under the care of the Beech Mennonite Church located about five miles north of the cemetery on Paris Avenue. I hope to contact the church to provide financial support for maintenance of the cemetery. In addition, the church has published a history I would like to obtain. If I do, I will advise you of any information of interest I discover.

Finally, I just remembered, my wife took pictures of the cemetery and some of the headstones. When we get these developed, we will get digital images along with prints. I will work to put together a disk with pictures to send to you.

Thank you and all others who work with you for your efforts to put together the Yoder Newsletter. Every issue is fascinating to read. I hope my information is of interest to you. -- Dwight Yoder

YODER ELECTED MAYOR

Dick Yoder Campaigns for Votes

The citizens of West Chester, Pa. Followed the call to "Be a Yoder Voter", and on Nov. 8, 2001, elected Richard B. (Dick) Yoder as mayor. Dick is a former Marine, retired West Chester University (WCU) administrator, coach and professor, and past President of the Oley Yoder Heritage Association. Dick Yoder (R) 1330 votes 55.70%, H. Paul Frederick (D) 897 votes 37.56% , Douglas McContha (Green) 159 votes 6.66% . You can still visit his campaign web site at: <http://www.dickyoder.com/> (Staff photo by Larry McDevitt, with permission of Daily Local News)

Johns Hopkins Index to Selected Amish Genealogies

Thanks to David Yoder of Evanston, IL who scanned files for our use, we now have available on our YODER WEB SITE a major index of Yoder records appearing within 118 individual Amish related genealogies. Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine has done much work studying Amish families. Many years ago, Dr. Harold E. Cross of the Medical School, Division of Medical Genetics, and Beulah Hostetler then of Willow Grove, Pa. published an "Index to Selected Amish Genealogies".

Several years ago, we received permission to display the Yoder data from Johns Hopkins. We'd like to thank John's Hopkins University for its permission to display the Yoder portion of this very useful Index. Thanks to David Yoder of Evanston, IL for scanning the Index file for our use. And many thanks to our YNL "web wonder" Donald Kauffman for developing the web display.

The YNL does not have the specific Genealogies at hand. To find them you'll need to check with one of the major libraries which contain significant Anabaptist genealogical data...Like the Mennonite Historical Library, Goshen College, or others.

YODER MENNOBIT INDEX AT HOMEPAGE!!

The Yoder Homepage now contains a summary index for the Yoders contained within the MENNOBITS web site, orchestrated by our YNL WebWonder Don Kauffman (in his spare time). The YNL has added suspected Yoder ID Numbers wherever possible and invites updates by all readers. Just email us on any corrections! Thanks!

Ted Yoder Takes a Bride

The YNL shares the joy of Jacqueline (Jackie) Bollinger Park and Ted Murray Yoder of Newton, North Carolina who were married Sunday, November 11, 2001 at New Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran Church. For many years, Ted has been a true "spark-plug" for the Yoder Family in North Carolina. May God Bless you both!

BERNARD JODER UPDATES WEB SITE

Bernard Joder, our German "cousin" warns he has updated his web pages and that people using an AOL browser may have difficulty seeing his pages. Explorer and Netscape 4x. works fine. Visit at <http://www.Joder.de> -- "greetings from Bernd Joder"

OLEY YODERS STILL SEEK RECIPES

The first edition of the Oley Yoder Cook book has sold out, but the committee is getting ready for a sequel. If you have a recipe that you would like to contribute, please send it in. If you have any old family recipes, handed down through the years, it would be especially nice to include them. Send them to Phyllis R. Yoder, 233 Main Street, Shoemakersville, PA 19555-1409 or e-mail at pry884@aol.com

NC YODERS UPDATE PROJECT CONTINUES!!

This multi-year project aims to bring the descendants of Conrad Yoder up to date and add lines from all over the nation. The help of all Conrad family members is needed to assemble current information. Noted historian Dr. Don Yoder has promised a major introduction to this revision on the history of the Yoder family. To help, contact: Bill Yoder, 2707 Zion Church Rd. Hickory, NC 28602 email: byodernc@yahoo.com or Chris Yoder at 203 Lakeshire Rd., Battle Creek, MI 49015. email: cyoder@tds.net.

 Noted Yoder Historian Dr. Don Yoder is leading a PENNSYLVANIA GERMAN HERITAGE TOUR
 from May 14 to May 29, 2002.

Among the family names listed in the tour guide are Shuford, Foust, Leinbach, Rudisel, Dellinger, Seitz, Barringer, Boger, Weidner, Zimerman, Wissenandt, Wilfong and Hahn. For the Yoder cousins whom he met at Yoder reunions in Pennsylvania and North Carolina, he has included a very special visit to Steffisburg in the Canton of Bern, cradle of all American Yoder families (Reformed, Mennonites or Amish), and a visit with German family researcher Ottmar Jotter. Major cities to be explored included Frankfurt, Heidelberg, Stuttgart, Vaihingen/Enz, Tuningen, Freiburg, Kaiserslautern, Bacharach, and Mainz, and in Switzerland Schaffhausen, Zurich, Bern, Thun, and Basel. The tour is limited to 40 spaces and half of them are already committed. For more details, contact Dr. Don Yoder Box 515, Devon, PA 19333 phone 610-688-9185 or fax 610-989-0976.

THE JOHN S. YODER HOME OPENS

After six years of toil the Amish Heritage Foundation of Sugarcreek, Ohio held an open house in September, 2001, to celebrate the opening of the John S. Yoder home's public debut. The restoration has been as authentic and historically correct as we could possibly make it, to give the visitors a true concept of an 1869 Amish home. The home has no electricity or plumbing and is situated on an acre of ground near Beachy's Country Chalet Restaurant. The home was moved from its original site amid a 172 acre farm from which downtown Sugarcreek was platted, circa 1872. The home will be open to the public from April to November, 2002 and will be staffed by Amish guides steeped in local Amish history. A nominal tour fee will be charged. We welcome any and all visitors. Hours of operation uncertain, but could be checked in advance by calling BEACHY'S COUNTRY CHALET at (330) 852 4644. ---Blaine F. Miller, Secretary/Treasurer

JODER ON U.S. OLYMPIC TEAM

Kristina Joder of Landgrove, Vermont is a member of the U.S. Women's Cross-Country team at the 2002 winter Olympics. She is a three-time World Junior team member and an NCAA All-American. Joder majored in parks recreation and tourism-commercial recreation at the University of Utah. She is the daughter of Urs and Carol Joder and is a former U.S. junior national champion in the 10km freestyle.

"The land-transaction date of 1742 for him and 1747 for his brother Jacob suggested to us that they took land as they became of age. Christian Joder (YR2) negotiated quick rent and interest from Mar. 1, 1741 for land in another location which he conveyed to his son Christian (YR23)(aka "Schweitzer Christian") in 1760. By now we could identify all three Christian Yoders that had confused descendants for so many years. "

The indenture is dated 3 Feb 1789 and is labeled a "Release between Heirs of Christian Yoder to Joseph Yoder" for ownership of "their late father's plantation in Bern Township Berks Co." Records of subsequent sales are also annotated from "Joseph Yoder to Peter Glick 14 Apr 1804" and from "Peter Glick to Andrew Boyer 26 April 1806". The indenture contains original signatures of all of his children but one. Elizabeth Yoder, wife of Christian Hertzler, is mentioned as an heir in the original draft, but did not sign the document. Her last child was born 18 Feb 1788 in Berks County. AAMG shows her death as 11 Jan 1791 also in Berks. Interestingly enough, this is after the document was signed and witnessed (21 Sep 1790) in Bedford County. Can we infer that she was ill, or "heavy with child" and therefore not able to be present? Perhaps.

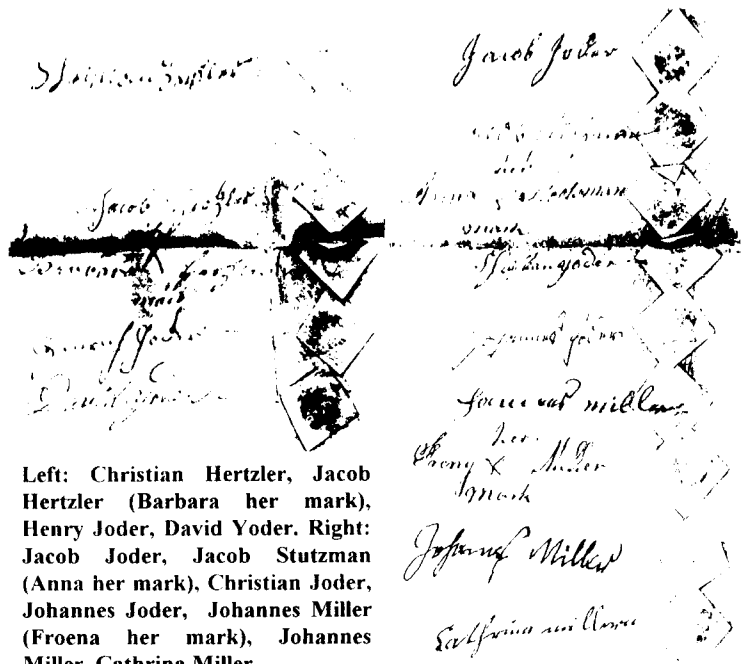

The document reads: "THIS INDENTURE Made the third day of February anno domini one Thousand seven hundred and eighty nine Between Jacob Yoder, Jacob Stutzman & Anna his wife of Brothers Valley Township, Christian Yoder and John Yoder of Quemahone Township, John Miller & Froena his Wife, John Miller and Katherine his wife of Elk Lick Township, all of Bedford County, Pennsylvania, Christian Hertzler & Elizabeth his wife, Jacob Hertzler and Barbara his wife, & David Yoder of Bern Township, and Henry Yoder of Winsor Township both of Berks County Pennsylvania aforesaid of the one part (they-(....names listed).....being children & Heirs of Christian Yoder late of Bern Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, Deceased) and Joseph Yoder also one of the sons of Christian Yoder of Bern Township Berks County aforesaid yeoman of the other part,

"WHEREAS, Christian Yoder the father, obtained a warrant from the proprietaries of Pennsylvania aforesaid Dated on or about the Nineteenth day of October 1743 for the quantity of one hundred acres adjoining John Kaufman and Benjamin Kaufman in Bern Township aforesaid then Lancaster now Berks County, In Pursuance whereof there was surveyed & laid out XXXXX unto the said Christian Yoder the father a certain tract of land adjoining land now of Jacob Kintlesberger, Baltzer (?Epler), Peter Epler, and others in said Township containing about Two hundred & eighty two acres of Land & Allowances be this same more or less, and being so thereof seized died in testate leaving issue..... Now this indenture Witnesseth for and in consideration of the sum of thirty nine pounds thirteen shillings & six pence in real specie of gold or silver money of Pennsylvania, to them and each of them in hand severally & respectively paid by their brother Joseph Yoder, the receipt whereof they do severally & respectively acknowledge

The indenture goes on to describe the property in detail, citing neighbors Stephen Kaufman, Jacob Kintlesberger, Baltzer (Epler?), "to a post thence by another part of the said tract intended to be released to David Yoder" containing One hundred and forty one acres & three quarters of an acre & the Customary allowances of six prhs for roads etc- [It being a part of the same tract of land above mentioned surveyed to the said Christian Yoder the father]in witness whereof the said parties to these present have hereunto set their hands and seals Dated the Day & Year first above written.....Sealed & Delivered In the presence of: Christian Garber (sp?), David Joder, Ebenezer Griffith."

"Received the day of the above written indenture of the above named Joseph Yoder the several & repetitive considerations of thirty nine pounds fourteen shillings & six pence to us and each of us severally & respectively paid in real specie of gold & silver money..witnesses present at signing Christian Garber David Joder Ebenezer Griffith. We say received by us: Christian Hertzler, Johannes Joder, Christian Yoder, Jacob Hertzler, Jacob Joder, Johannes Miller, Johannes Miller, Jacob Stutzman

"The twenty first day of Sepber in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety There before me, one of the Justices of the peace for the county of Bedford came the witness...Jacob Yoder, Jacob Stootsman and Anna his wife, Christian Yoder, John Yoder, John Miller & Freny his wife, John Miller &

Catharina his wife, Christian Hartzler, Jacob Hartzler & Barbara his wife, (Yost-crossed out) Joseph Yoder, Henry Yoder, acknowledged the above written release to be their act and Deed and desired the same to be recorded as such and the said women being of full age , there unto conversing separately and apart examined by me from their husbands the consents thereof being first made known unto them and that they have executed the same of their own free will and record without any coercion or compulsion of their husbands. Witness of my hand this day and year written--Ebenezer Griffith"

Rachel Kreider goes on to comment

"Most interesting to me in this indenture was to see how the siblings paired off when they moved out of Berks County to Somerset County (Bedford then). It took me a long time to realize in times past that two sisters had married men with the same name--John Miller-- and they lived close together in Elk Lick Twp. Now I see that Hans and Christian were both in Quemahoning Township in 1789.

"We were aware of a Christian in Somerset County, but we could not place him and soon he was gone without a trace. One source had suggested that he was a Lutheran. When you suggested he was the Christian found in Stark County, Ohio (YNL30) I did not accept the idea easily. He seemed too far removed from his siblings and I associated the Stark County Yoders with the Alsatian immigrants. We had no trouble to trace Hans and his wife from Berks to Bedford to their last home north of Shanesville, Oh. Near the Holmes-Tuscarawas Co. line. I seemed to have forgotten that Hans was Christian's brother. I should have remembered the Gerber brothers who married Yoder sisters, cousins to Hans and Christian. They too seemed to travel together from Berks to Somerset to Ohio, but Abraham Gerber's family stayed associated with the Holmes Co. community and Christian Gerber moved on to Stark Co. From then on that family had a very different history.

"In comparatively recent years the late Lloyd Conrad, studying the Mennonites of Stark Co., inquired who might be the Hans and Magdalena Yoder who had applied for land in Stark Co. as early as 1808 but by 1815 they sold the land and moved away! He said there seemed to have been a Christian Yoder there of the same age bracket, who died without children and a John Gerber who married a Christina _____ was involved in settling the estate. I knew this John Gerber's mother was Anna Yoder (YR173) a cousin to Christian (YR122).We could see that Hans and his brother Christian were together in Stark Co. for at least a short time and from this indenture we see that they were together in 1789 as well. Now at last we have identified definitely the Christian Yoder of Somerset Co!

"At first glance I wondered why Joseph (YR127) should get the original farm but when we consider the family dates and what was going on in the Amish community at that time it is not surprising, even though we know that Joseph did not stay there either. I was also interested to see that at one place his name had been written as Yost and then was crossed out. The name of the Yost in the other immigrant family had on occasion also been written as Joseph. This is something to note as we look back to the use of names in the Anabaptist Joder families in Europe."

We certainly rejoice at this wonderful "find"! The full text of the Indenture has been transcribed and may be seen at the Yoder Newsletter Homepage.

Yoder declined a teaching fellowship in church history to become the editor of The Brethren Evangelist in 1903 and to teach Bible and theology courses at Ashland College. In 1904 he married Pearl Lutz (1876-1943), a schoolteacher from Falls City, Ne.

In Ashland, Yoder helped organize a campaign to close local taverns and "saloons", served as general secretary of the Foreign Mission Society (1903-c1906), and compiled material for God's Means of Grace (1908), and extensive (631 page) exposition of Brethren ordinances and doctrines. Ashland College awarded him an honorary PhD degree in 1909 in recognition of his work. In the service of the Foreign Mission Society (FMS), Yoder investigated the potential for mission work in Persia (Iran), May-July, 1905. war and uncertain political conditions brought his trip to a premature end; Yoder recommended against sending additional missionaries to Persia.

After the FMS decision to begin mission work in Argentina (1907), C.F. and Pearl Yoder were asked to become the first foreign missionaries. They spent a year in Montreal, Quebec (May 1908-June 1909) in preparation for work among Roman Catholics in Argentina. The Yoders, eventually located in Rio Cuarto, where C.F. Yoder later taught biology at the national College (1912-1923). This position gave the Brethren Church mission somewhat greater respectability and provided the first contact with Adolfo Zeche, who succeeded Yoder as superintendent of the mission in 1945. In 1923 C.F. Yoder resigned his teaching position to devote more time to evangelistic ministry.

As tension within the Brethren Church increased in the late 1930s, C.F. Yoder's relative distance from events in the US led some leaders of the denomination to look to him as a conciliator in his position as general Conference moderator, 1937-38. Continuing controversy after his return to Argentina caused him to return to the US on his own initiative in July 1939. After the division of the Brethren Church, he helped reestablish The Brethren Evangelist as a contributing editor, then despite earlier plans to retire from mission service, returned to Argentina to reorganize work under the auspices of the Missionary Board of the Brethren Church. He retired as superintendent in 1945 but remained in Argentina, where he wrote several books, numerous articles, and considerable poetry. He died on Feb. 7, 1955.

Hello, I'm Carlos Yoder. I'm 23 and live in Buenos Aires, Argentina. My great-grandfather (Abraham Yoder) came from Kiev, Russia in 1904. I'm the youngest grandchild of the youngest of Abraham's children (Simon Yoder, who's now 79). I'd like to know more about my long-lost family! Here we are very few, but it seems like we are a lot! I have a big brother, Pablo Yoder (27), and my father is Aldo Mario Yoder (57). The other branches of the family are all but gone, since my grandfather's siblings were women, or men with no offspring. Please, let me know what can I do to help! Thank you so much, ---Carlos Yoder , Buenos Aires, Argentina YNL Note: We are trying, with Elsa Ruth Romanenghi Yoder's help, to trace further the history of Carlos's family. Her daughter has gotten in touch with him. Elsa reports that there are Mennonite immigrants who also came from Russia at the beginning of the century and settled as farmers, in Entre Rios, near Bs. As. But Carlos' great grandfather seems to have traveled alone, at about the same time. We hope to have more to share by the next newsletter.

or three of them on our neighbor's house. She found out, of course, and later came and knocked at our door. I was fortunate to have Grandpa staying with us a few days, because otherwise I would have been whacked by my father. Grandpa got a pail of water and a couple of rags and gently took me by his hand from where I was hiding in terror and went with me outdoors. Under the curious glance of people going and coming along the sidewalk we scrubbed the bad words from the wall. What a lesson! And how graceful the way he impressed it on me for the rest of my life.

As I became a teenager I had mixed feelings about grandpa. I was proud of him when I brought home friends and saw how he handled information about different topics. He was up to date on scientific or philosophic themes about which many parents would have not have much to say. I didn't know at the time, as happens with ones own parents and grandparents, that he was a learned man and held several degrees: For me he was "Grandpa the preacher". On the other hand I felt like ducking under the table when he started to talk about "faith in Christ" to my friends from school who were mostly Roman Catholic or Jewish. I used to squirm uncomfortable till I found some excuse to get out of the situation. But how many people later in my life told me they had known Christ through my grandfather! I became a Christian myself after marrying, and begun to appreciate what a real Christian character he had, and what strength there was in his convictions.

One of my last pictures of him was the day his wife died. Ever since I was a child I had noticed on the wall near his desk, a framed typewritten poem, dedicated to my grandmother Pearl. The day after she died I happened to walk into his room and noticed a stanza had been added: The same typewriter, but the ink of the ribbon was different! I read it with tears in my eyes because it was a moving stanza, a last good bye to his wife of many years. I was deeply moved at learning what married love could mean.

Because Eleonor, my mother, was his eldest daughter she inherited most of Grandpa's books, and other things. But it was long after he died that I discovered these treasures and unrolled his degrees. I was surprised to find a History of Philosophy which he must have used as a young man because I saw his notes on some pages. I was already teaching philosophy at the University of Tucumán at the time. But my decision was taken not knowing he held a doctorate in Philosophy as well as one in Theology, and that he had a degree in Classical studies, all of which were things he never mentioned.

Looking through one of the books he wrote (besides his main work God's Means of Grace, publ. 1908) I was amazed that more than fifty years ago, he could have investigated and written in such modern terms about missions (The Argentine Mission Field). He covered information about the country, its people and culture, character and morals, education, government, etc. What we would now properly call a sociological study as well as a Christian evaluation.

There are many more anecdotes about him which people remember about him, and I sometimes feel I ought to gather all that information and write about a great man I was not able to appreciate till he was gone.---Elsa Ruth Romanenghi Yoder, Argentina.

YODER FARMHOUSE IN SOMERSET COUNTY

In their July 1992 Mennonite Family History article on Amish homesteads in Somerset County, Pa., the house above in Stony Creek Twp. and the adjacent barn were identified as being on the property of "Schweitzer Christian" Yoder (YR23). This information has been perpetuated by others and before it becomes made into concrete, we need to correct some things. The property is owned by Leon Knepper of Berlin, Pa, and before him by the Yonai family. The historic property records were given by Joan Yonai to Yoder descendant Tom Yoder of Coraopolis, Pa. Tom passed them on to the archives of the Mennonite Church at Goshen College, and provided copies to the Yoder newsletter several years ago.

These records (summarized below and outlined in detail on the Yoder Homepage) relate to several parcels belonging to Bishop Christian Yoder Jr (1790-1846) and mention adjacent properties. The core of this land was initially warranted to Nathaniel Smith in 1785. The property lies east and slightly to the south of the original homestead warrants of "Schweitzer" Christian and of his son Bishop Christian Yoder Sr (1758-1836), see below:

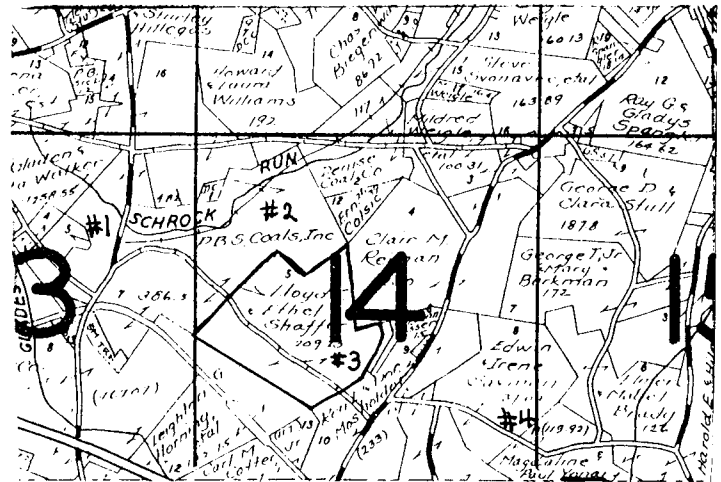

Somerset, Stony Creek Twp. Properties-#1- 1773 Jacob Hertzler warrant assumed by "Schweitzer Christian", #2- 1773 "Schweitzer Christian" warrant, #3- Bishop Christian Yoder Sr. land warranted 1785, Nathaniel Smith warrant of 1785-which formed the basis for the Bishop Christian Yoder Jr. property.

Bishop Christian Yoder Jr. began to purchase land soon after turning 21 years of age, with a warrant record for an initial 52 acres in 1812, patent returned in 1816. He purchased an additional 176 acres in 1828. The property has been surveyed by the Somerset County Historical Society and the record reports that the house appears to have been built in two phases. "The western portion of the house measuring approximately 22' x 25' appears to be of log construction, while the eastern half is framed and sided." The survey mentions additional property transferred by conveyance in 1817. It goes on to indicate that the house was likely built "between 1812 and 1846", at which time the estate of Bishop Yoder "describes the 176 1/2 acre "home place" on which is erected two houses, a bank barn, and other buildings."

The photo above was taken around the turn of the century by Dr. Peter Yoder, a grandson of Bishop Christian by youngest son Reuben Yoder (1831-1912). Peter wrote on the back of the photo "the house where father was born"....establishing that the house had been constructed before 1831. David C. Yoder was the oldest surviving son of Bishop Christian Jr, and the land came into his possession after the death of his parents. In 1869 he moved to Elkhart County, Indiana and lived there until his death in 1887 age 70. The Historical Society Survey indicates that the Ringler family held the property from that time until 1922. While there is a 1853 record showing a Ringler-Yoder dealing for 50 acres, the deed of sale for the bulk of the property appears in 1881.

A More Modern Plot Map with original tracts outlined Properties-#1- 1773 Jacob Hertzler warrant, #2- 1773 "Schweitzer Christian" warrant, #3- Bishop Christian Yoder Sr. warranted 1785, #4- 1785 Nathaniel Smith warrant (Yonai farm)

Original Barn on Farm 9-19-1936

A Photograph of the Yoder barn taken 9-19-1936. The barn consists of two separately hewn log structures linked with a post-and-beam-framed center bay. It is one of five barns of this design identified in Somerset Co., several built as early as 1809. Historians believe this one was built about 1841.

Joseph Yoder. Looking for his ancestry. He was born in the 1820's m. Annette Glase(Klase) 1841. Father of Alfred Charles Yoder, my GGF. Alfred had at least 2 brothers, Jeremia b.28 April 1861 and Messiah b. 22 Oct 1863 all born in Berks Co, Pa. Reply to Wm. E Yoder, Jr. 380 High St., Souderton, Pa. 18964

I have been told that one of my Hechlers (Hecklers) was raised by the Yoder Amish. Do you have any record of Hechlers in your clan? Time period would have been about early 1800's. This would have been around what is now Markelton PA (Somerset County). If that does not ring a bell, I can look up other place names from that time period...its near Brothers Valley and Upper Turkeyfoot.... Thank you, Melanie Heckler, <prmrhea@home.com>

My ancestor, MARY YODER, was born 6/2/1803 of Catawissa, PA? and died March 1896 in Wayne County, OH. She married JAMES C. PANCOAST about 1825 in Catawissa, PA (possibly). I am descended from their first born son, CASPER C. PANCOAST born 12/10/1826 and died 12/12/1884 in Wyandot County, OH. Can anyone confirm her ancestry? Mrs. Sherry C. SOLICITATION FOR YODER PHOTOS!!!

We have made a small start and assembling Yoder photos in digital form, and have plans to gradually scan more of the images we have used and/or collected at the YNL over the years. Practical limitations on our web server will limit what we can display there, but the capabilities to assemble and include data on a CD ROM are significant. We'd like your help in beginning to build these pictorial files of families. If you have access to scan photos and then email them to me at the following address: 75757.3371@compuserve.com .

For now I'd like to limit things to pre-1920 Yoder family group photos, photos of individual Yoders who may have been born before 1860, or photos of pre-1830 Yoder homestead structures. Include with your photo a short paragraph of narration. Thanks to David Packard for the first contribution. (Thomas R. Yoder-Con236)- Chris Yoder

YODERS STAR AT READING CIVIC OPERA!

THREE GENERATIONS OF THESPIANS

Joseph Yoder, current President of the Oley Yoder Heritage Association, has been an active theater member for over 40 years. The Reading Civic Opera Society presentation this year is "Peter Pan", and Joe and son Adam appear as pirates. Grandson Adam, age 7, had the role of Michael.

At the 2001 National Yoder reunion, Joe donned a Santa hat and read a Pennsylvania Dutch version of "T'was the Night Before Christmas". You can see Joe makes a very good Santa. At a recent Yoder meeting at the Pleasantville Inn, he was approached by a 4-year-old boy who wanted to know where his reindeer were. Joe explained that they were at home, and why he only used them on Christmas Eve. Joe had a red shirt on that day and when he went to drive home he put on a Santa hat (which he always wears at Christmas). The little boy said to his mother "See, I told you he was Santa". - contributed by Fay Yoder, Hamburg, Pa.

2001 Stewart Yoder Reunion near Manteno, IL.

Stewart Yoder (M661) (b. 1859, d.1951) was the son of Calvin, son of Peter, son of immigrant Melchior Yoder. He and his wife Jennie started the first reunion which was held at their home in St. Anne, Illinois for many years until it subsided. Cleve and Stella Yoder picked up the tradition some years later and the reunion was held at their home in St. Anne and then in Mt. Aire, Indiana for many years, but it too subsided.

Then Ray "Sonny" LeBell—grandson of Cleve and Stella, decided to start the reunion tradition again in 1981. This year marked the 20th reunion. It is always held the second weekend of August, usually on Sunday—rain or shine. For the last so many years it has been held at the Kankakee Sportsman's Club where Sonny is a member.

At the first meeting and all meetings after a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Chaplain were voted on. For many years it was the same people—now we are trying to get the younger generation involved. This year our Vice President and Treasurer are in their early twenties. The Chaplain has been one of the sons of Cleve Yoder since we started. Fred Yoder has been the Chaplain for many years and still is.

The secretary keeps the record of happenings for the year. How many attended, who came the farthest, the youngest, the oldest, the youngest grandmother, etc. We try to note who we lost that year and always have a moment of silence for the lost loved ones. Attendance fluctuates—some large and many small. There are some years where we have someone new who has never been to one of our reunions—like this year—Bill Yoder attended for the first time, coming from Knoxville, Tn.. Bill, a descendant of Stewart's brother Harry, and his cousin Phil went to see an Uncle Emmet who was 95 years old and brought back some enlightening family history.

Starting a reunion is not easy and keeping it going is the hardest part. The most enjoyable part of the reunion has to be the people you see and the lives that are touched for that one day—lives that are old and new, near and far. Many of these family members are only seen at the reunion or at funerals and seeing someone at a reunion is always the best choice. Watching children grow and sharing a families joy and sorrow are the comforts of getting older: --Joyce VanSetten (Bill Yoder notes: Emmet, 95, is the only child of Stewart and Jennie still living. 71 people attended. Stewart and Jenny(Wade) had 9 children; 7 boys, 2girls. His son, Mack, lived to be 100. The following officers for 2002 are: Pres. Jason Yoder, V. P. Heather Rossi, Sec. Joyce VanSetten, Treas. Corey Delby, Chap. Fred Yoder. During the bus. meeting, I shared with them some of the Yoder heritage and encouraged them to obtain a copy of Virgil Yoder's video-- Bill Yoder (M66221))

-The Rev. James Franklin "Frank" Yoder, 82, of Athens, McMinn Co., Tn March 20, 2000, a son of the late Samuel David and Melinda Cordia Cooley Yoder. He was an active participant in the NC Yoder reunions.

-Audre J. Yoder Proctor, 87, Goshen, Ind Feb, 19, 2002. Audre was the daughter of to George and Hazel (Stiver) Yoder. She married Thomas Proctor in St. Johnsbury, Vt., on Sept. 7, 1939. He is deceased. Mrs. Proctor worked for American Heritage Publishing Co. in New York City. Ms. Proctor was a longtime friend of the YNL. In the 1988 article on her great-grandmother "Rosanna of the Amish" she wrote: "When Dad was about five years old he cut his leg with an ax. His grandmother (Rosanna) came to his house and "powwowed"; stopped the bleeding which was profuse. Needless to say, he was a great believer in this gift of healing, and he had a man in Goshen who he called to pow-wow for me when I had been hit in the eye and nose with a golf club and it WORKED, so I'm a believer too."
